

TR - RIVERDALE

INT. DINER - DAY

MISTY sits down across from ANNA.

MISTY

"Snitches get stitches." It's practically the town slogan. So many things happen on these winding roads in the woods, you know?

ANNA

I know. I was there.

MISTY

Shhh. Even the booths have ears, here. And we didn't have the conversation we're about to have.

ANNA

The one where you tell me we did the right thing and not to worry? Where you tell me that you'll use your dad's connections to keep us innocent?

MISTY

The one where you say exactly what we agreed you'd say. No more, no less. (de sotto) They know that there was more than one of us in the car.

ANNA

What? How did they know that?

MISTY

And they want to arrest at least 5 people for questioning. My people.

ANNA

And so I need to tow the party line? Say whatever you tell me to say so that I can stay out of jail?

MISTY

You need to say whatever I say will save you. Because once they pass that sentence, we're not friends anymore. And I can't help you.

ANNA

Won't, or can't? (Misty smiles) I guess when you're the villain, it's a little bit of both. (beat) Too bad the villain always loses.
